The Cancer Support Community (CSC) is an international non-profit dedicated to providing support, education and hope to people affected by cancer. Likely the largest employer of psychosocial oncology mental health professionals in the United States, CSC offers a menu of personalized services and education for all people affected by cancer. Its global network brings the highest quality cancer support to the millions of people touched by cancer. Our mission is to ensure that all people impacted by cancer are empowered by knowledge, strengthened by action, and sustained by community.

The Cancer Support Community's Communications Team works closely with the different departments within the organization. Our team utilizes public relations, marketing, health communication and event planning experience. Through social media, media outreach, events, and program launches, the communications team works to effectively share information about the Cancer Support Community and its resources to better reach those affected by cancer. The Special Events and Cause Marketing Intern would work closely with the communication team to assist with event planning logistics and cause marketing management and outreach.

Current Projects

- Sarge's Hats and John Wind Jewelry Cause Marketing
  The Cancer Support Community has partnered with Sarge's Hats and John Wind jewelry to provide products that give back to CSC and help fund our free cancer services. SargesHats.com will donate 2% of each sale to fund research, support and awareness for the Cancer Support Community facilities and organization. John Wind jewelry has designed signature pieces to benefit the Cancer Support Community, featured at CSC events.

- Special Events – Benefit Event and Spring Celebration
  The Cancer Support Community benefit concert is a small event held in New York City featuring a private concert with Brian D'Arcy James. The event will raise funds to support the Cancer Support Community's free services. The Spring Celebration is CSC's annual gala held in New York City to benefit the Cancer Support Community and its services.

What we are looking for:

- A hard-working, dedicated undergraduate student with experience, interest, and/or coursework in event planning, marketing and health communication.
- 20 hours per week (flexible hours between 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., M-F)

What to expect in return:

- A unique opportunity to develop public relations, marketing, event planning, and written and oral communication skills.
- An individualized, positive learning environment with mentors dedicated to your development

Please contact Maria Smith, Manager, Communications and Events at maria@cancersupportcommunity.org for more information on an internship with the CSC Communications Team. To apply, please send Maria Smith a resume and cover letter by January 31st with the subject line with the position you're interested in.