To best support yourself and your caregivers, contact the Cancer Support Community. We can help.

Our CAR T Navigators are licensed clinical social workers who are oncology-trained to provide education, resources and emotional support to people with cancer and their caregivers. This program provides free personalized navigation to offer assistance with:

- Practical concerns such as financial, transportation, lodging and employment
- Adjusting to CAR T cell therapy demands and changes to lifestyle
- Living with uncertainty
- Talking to children and family members about the diagnosis and treatment
- Caregiver stress
